Perfumes to illuminate our souls
Accendis is the result of a research concerning our emotional light. In Latin “Accendis” means “you illuminate”, but also “you bring out aromas”.

Fairy tales have always been the magic of fantasy that lights up and makes the fear disappear. A light that ACCENDIS explores with beautiful fables.

“Miracles are dreams that become light”

(Alan Drew)
ACCENDIS bottle has been realized by a customized design to express the importance of our light research which animate our life. ACCENDIS is a fuel of our emotions.
COFFRET

Accendis coffret is precious, elegant and made of warm materials. Its form invokes a book where no words are contained, but fragrances that give emotions.
Without Black of the night sky, the magic of the stars would not be visible. Black is a state of stillness, where every light, even if small, can show itself in its delicate beauty. Black is to be and not to appear, to be oneself without poses, without filters, without shielding, to always be true. In front of a black screen we can shine in our natural uniqueness. White is the maximum light that shows itself from black. It is the state of purity, the openness to every possibility, the conjunction of the man with the universe. It symbolizes birth and rebirth, the beginning of every life cycle. The divine and perennial flame is white. White is everything that is pure, wise, enlightened and also of the aspiration towards what has not yet occurred. Different yet complementary, these two colors are the emblem of ACCENDIS perfumes. Two souls who are destined to meet. They are the perfect love made of complicity, desire, friendship, sharing and respect.
For the ancient people, the black color was considered sacred to the deities and was used as a symbol of unity, pure essence and equality. It was seen as the total realization, the symbol of the highest authority. Symbol of knowledge and interaction with the Universe. Black and white as the eternal dualism

“\nThe black words on the white paper are the naked soul.\n”

(Guy de Maupassant)
Once upon a time there was a wonderful wood where every tree was not just a plant, but a living being. The trees themselves could not move, but offered their hair as a home for the birds that flew among them. Mushrooms and fruits of every color were born among their roots and many animals found not only shelter, but the opportunity to have fun and play with each other. The men who visited this forest not only marveled but saw the forest as a sacred place and respected the plants and all the beings that lived in it as divine creatures. In this forest, however, even a black prince had his residence. He was an envious wizard and he hated all the light and colors. One day he came by chance from a distance, from the world of light, a fairy with a group of elves seeing the black and dead forest had compassion and wanted to wake him up. With the power of his love he called a star from the sky that descended into the trees and turned to earth in a marvelous pinwheel.

A long time ago when the Cherokee people were new upon the earth, they thought that life would be much better if there was never any night. They beseeched the Ouga (Creator) that it might be day all the time and that there would be no darkness. The Creator heard their voices and made the night cease and it was day all the time. Soon, the forest was thick with heavy growth. It became difficult to walk and to find the path. Not many days had passed before the people realized they had made a mistake and, once again, they beseeched the Creator. He loved the people and decided to make it night all the time as they had asked. The day ceased and night fell upon the earth. Soon, the crops stopped growing and it became very cold. They could not see to hunt meat and with no crops growing it was not long before the people were cold, weak, and very hungry so they asked to make the day and night as it was before. Once again the Creator listened to the request of the people. The day and the night became, as the people had asked, as it had been in the beginning. Each day was divided between light and darkness. The Creator accepted the gratitude of the people and was glad to see them smiling again. To protect them and illuminate their minds, he placed their ancestor’s spirits in a newly created tree. This tree was named a-tsi-na tlu-gv {ah-see-na loo-guh} Cedar Tree.

Perfumes to illuminate our souls
The White is the hope for the future, the state of purity, the noble sentiments and the desire to change. The White evokes purity, spirituality, and divinity.

“White is a world so high compared to us that we almost do not feel the sound…”

(Vassili Kandinsky)
It is said that the Moon listened to and welcomed human desires, deciding to give a small bamboo bud to a couple of poor peasants. A beautiful girl came out of the bud, bringing them love and wealth. However, the experience of a simple, loving family was crushed by human helplessness. The princess wept at the moon and the heavenly court decided to bring her back to the stars. Authentic affections and moments of life remain her most beautiful experience, but the Moon mother is a realm of music and magic, enabling to return to a state of purity. On summer full moon nights, you may sometimes smell a sweet scent of vanilla and coconut; the legend says that it is the girl’s greeting to her land parents.
Luna Dulcius

Coconut symbolizes good fortune and prosperity and vanilla, with its wrapping aroma, spreads sweetness.
